Disclaimer:

Embraer certifies that, after inspections and approval of technical and operational conditions, ENAER was authorized, on the date of issuance of this certificate, as an EASC (Authorized Maintenance Service Company) exclusively for the A-29 Super Tucano aircraft of the Chilean Air Force, valid for 03 (three) years. Maintenance of the approved technical and operational conditions is the sole responsibility of ENAER during the period of validity of this certificate. It is important to note that Embraer will not perform annual or intermediate audits during this period. At the end of the validity of this certificate, ENAER must undergo a new contracting and certification process to renew its authorization as an EASC, as stipulated in the contract.
